NORWEGIAN CLAIMS THE DISCOVERY

Denies Wiring Any Word About British Explorer

THREE DAYS AT POLE

Is Claim of Amundsen and Another Peary-Cook Controversy Started.

Christiana, Norway, March 8.—Two local newspapers today received dispatches from Raold Amundsen announcing that he had reached the South Pole on December 14, 1911. The dispatches are from Hobart, Tasmania, where Amundsen arrived yesterday. These dispatches say he remained in the vicinity of the pole for three days for the purpose of taking accurate bearings of his position.

At Hobart, Tasmania, Captain Raold Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, denies having telegraphed anything regarding Captain Robert Scott or his expedition. Captain Amundsen up to the present has been the only person to leave the Fran. Nobody is allowed to go on the vessel under any pretext.

The explorer is pleased with the result of his voyage, and will remain for a while in the southern country when he will lecture through Australia and later will depart for Europe going by the circuitous route of Buenos Ayres, then around Cape Horn through the northwestern passage into the Arctic sea.

Confirmation of Captain Amundsen's attainment in December 14, 1911, has been received from the explorer and disclaims any knowledge of any one else reaching the pole.

The dispatches received in London from Wellington, N. Z., declared that Amundsen said that he had reached the South Pole and the attainment gave the object of the search to the British explorer but the honor now goes to the Norwegian explorer until Captain Scott announces the result of his expedition to the South land.

Capt. Amundsen's last voyage lasted from 1897 to 1899 when he decided to carry the contest into the northwestern passage. He remained in the northwestern passage many months, drifting about until he was found by an American whaler on the east coast of Greenland. He ultimately brought his little bark through the Behning Straits and accomplished the northwestern passage. The Fran, which Captain Amundsen selected for his later use was used for many years in Arctic explorations. From 1893 to 1895 she was used by Dr. Nansen and traveled 7,000 miles in Arctic waters.

BOY JUMPED FROM BRIDGE TO SAVE LIFE

Pataskala, O., March 8.—Clarence Vickers, aged 19, living near Pataskala, when caught on a railroad bridge, jumped to save his life and suffered a fractured shoulder when he landed in the creek below.

Young Vickers had been calling on friends some distance from his home and, returning, walked the railroad track. As he approached the center of a bridge near Pataskala, he was overtaken by a train and was compelled to jump to save his life. He broke his left shoulder when he struck the creek bed under the bridge.

His cries for help drew the attention of people in the village and he was removed to the hotel, where Dr. Wentz reduced the fracture. Later, the young man was removed to his home.

TRIXIE FRIGANZA TO MARRY MANAGER

TRIXIE FRIGANZA
Trixie Friganza, starring this season in "The Sweetest Girl in Paris," has announced in Philadelphia that she is to be married Sunday to Charles Goettler, her manager. She says when she first met Goettler she didn't like him because he was "so horribly businesslike."

ADVOCATE SENDS FIRST WIRELESS FROM NEWARK

(Overland Wireless Aeronaut)
Columbus, March 8.—The Columbus Dispatch is appreciative of the kindly greetings and congratulations you on the enterprise of the Advocate.

CHARLES J. RETKER,
City Editor Dispatch

Newark now has wireless telegraph service with Columbus. The apparatus has just been installed, and is not as yet in perfect working order, but is being used.

The Advocate sent the first commercial message over the new system Thursday in the form of greetings to the Columbus Dispatch in referring to the incident, Thursday evening's Dispatch said:

"If all the telegraph and telephone wires were to break down now, Columbus could connect with Newark, Ohio, by wireless."

"On Thursday morning a new wireless service between the two cities was opened by a message from Newark sent by C. H. Spencer, manager of the Newark Advocate, to the Columbus Dispatch. This was the first commercial message sent over the new station, and conveyed congratulations to the Dispatch from the sister city."

"Newark, has thirty thousand inhabitants and boasts of a board of trade of eight hundred members. The new wireless station will add considerable prestige to Newark and Columbus."

The Newark station of the Overland Wireless System is located in the Fleck-Zartman building, over the Gleichauf furniture store, while the Columbus office is in the Harrison building.

TREATIES PASSED BY SENATE

Made Practically Meaningless by Number of Amendments

NOW HAVE LITTLE FORCE

President Taft Disappointed by Action of Senate—Victory for Roosevelt.

Washington, March 8.—Although the senate by a vote of 76 to 3 late yesterday afternoon ratified the British and French arbitration treaties, it was not until they had been so emasculated by amendments and resolutions of interpretation and limitation that they were made practically meaningless.

By the adoption of the amendment recommended by the committee on foreign relations, striking out Paragraph 3 of Article 2 of the treaties, and by the elimination of certain subjects from submission to arbitration, the conventions are rendered practically purposeless and ineffective, and so narrow in scope that it is probable they will be dropped and no more will be heard of them.

In order to make them operative it will now be necessary to re-submit them to the other high contracting parties, Great Britain and France, because of the amendments adopted by the senate. Because they now have so little force, it is likely that they may never be returned to these governments.

The friends of the original treaties, as transmitted by the president to the senate for its action do not think that it would be worth while to ask Great Britain and France to act anew on them, because even if they should consent to the amendments, the convention would cover so little ground that they might never be called into use.

The action of the senate in striking out the clause in controversy is seriously regretted by the supporters of the measures. It is also a blow to the administration, which has earnestly and persistently fought for the ratification of the treaties, and some of the opponents of the president are inclined to regard the result as a victory for former President Roosevelt, because of the position which he has taken in antagonism to the measures, as originally framed and submitted.

OHIO WRECKS OF TWO CHICAGO TO NEW YORK LIMITED TRAINS MAY RESULT IN DISCONTINUANCE OF EIGHTEEN-HOUR SERVICE

Railroad men are considering the advisability of discontinuing eighteen-hour trains between New York and Chicago following wrecks Thursday in Ohio of Twentieth Century Limited trains. Photographer Clarence M. Stuegitz took the above picture of the Lake Shore Limited's wreck by flashlight, a few moments after the train had left the rails. One man was killed and a dozen injured.

NEWARK CLUB WOMEN OPPOSED TO BALLOT

Probably the most revolutionary measure to come up before the constitutional convention now in session in Columbus, is that of woman's suffrage. During the past few years many women of the country have become ardent supporters of the equal right for women and while they have not taken such strenuous measures to gain recognition for themselves as their British sisters nevertheless in many states they have fought for the privilege of the ballot and received it.

After a sharp and bitter fight in the convention the Kilpatrick measure for equal suffrage was passed on Thursday by a goodly majority. During the fight, however, it was conclusively shown that the majority of the women of the state of Ohio did not care to share the responsibility of voting with the men. This sentiment seems to prevail also in Newark.

Greatly in excess in this city are the women who feel themselves in capable and also not sufficiently interested to delve into the intricacies of the political world. We may be old fashioned in this, our little city but the home seems to supply sufficient interest here for our women.

In striving to ascertain the sentiment of the Newark women, a number of the club members of the city were interviewed. Mrs. Lloyd Millisor, president of the Unity Reading Club, was the first one approached. She said that the matter had never come up formally before the club and that she knew of only one member of her organization who was a firm believer in the extending of the ballot to women. Mrs. Millisor expressed herself as uninterested, because she had no desire to take advantage of its privileges.

Mrs. B. M. East, president of the Review Club, said that when a petition had been submitted to members for affixing their signatures as favoring the bill to go before the committee in the convention, that only a few of the members had signed it. However, personally, Mrs. East said that she was opposed to it.

"I wish to make no statement for publication," said Miss Mary Neal, president of the Monday Talks. "There has at no time been a formal discussion of the matter by the club, therefore I am unable to say what the members feel with regard to the measure."

Miss Kathryn Suter, president of the Photoseen Club, said that the "club as a whole did not favor woman's suffrage," and the same sentiment was expressed as the personal feeling of the president.

It was impossible to get in touch with Mrs. Charles Allen, president of the Progressive Club, but Mrs. Wm. Zentmyer, the vice president, was talked with. Mrs. Zentmyer said that a petition had been presented to the club, but that it had been ignored. Personally speaking, Mrs. Zentmyer said: "I feel that in time the event of woman's suffrage will be a good thing. But I feel that the women of this country are hardly ready to receive it now. They need to be educated up to it."

It was impossible to get into communication with Miss Mabel Pugh, president of the Research Club, and Mrs. P. J. Glancy, of the Coterie Club, so it is not known whether the members of these organizations favor the measure or not.

The proposal which has been passed by the convention, of course, is not yet a law. It will be up to the voters of the state whether it will be accepted or rejected. The measure will be submitted separately for a vote and thus it will receive an impartial consideration.

STATE RESTS IN THE ANDREWS BRIBERY CASE

Columbus, March 8.—With the opening of the afternoon session of the trial of State Senator Andrews, charged with accepting a $200 bribe, the state announced that it rested its case and the defense began the presentation of its case. Court Stenographer R. C. Walcott was the last witness on the stand for the state.

After the opening of court today a controversy came up as to whether Stenographer Walcott could transcribe his notes from the dictagraph. The defense questioned Walcott's ability. Attorney Huling asked Walcott whether he had not told Attorney Connors yesterday when they were going up the court house steps that you people had permitted me to take the stand I could have told something of benefit to your case."

"I told Mr. Connors nothing of the sort," said Walcott. "I told him if I should be permitted to go on the stand I should make a clean cut statement at the conclusion of which he would not have been dissatisfied."

"Do you consider Wednesday's dictagraph test a fair one?" he was asked.

"Would you arrange to make another such a test?" "I would not. The way the test was arranged the stenographer is suffering from a great nervous strain and cannot do himself nor the machine justice."

The prosecution here interposed, "We object to the defense asking as to whether any more tests will be arranged. That is the privilege of the state. Let them make the test in a hotel where the crime was committed."

Walcott explained that the presence of Attorney Huling in the room was another cause which made him exceedingly nervous but including everything he took more of the conversation over the dictagraph than the one stenographer who was stationed in the room where the dictation was given.

TEN MORE AND 800 REACHED

Ten more members are needed by the Board of Trade to reach the 800 mark. Of the eight new members just enrolled, two represent labor organizations, Mr. Emmert the Teamsters' Union and Mr. Thompson the Stage Workers' organization. The following are new members: Martin Ray, Neal, H. R. Ascher, Walter, Woodruff L. G. Burke, C. O. Emmert Nick Thompson, R. A. White, Clarence H.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE PROPOSAL

Columbus, March 8.—To the electors of Ohio—all men—the campaign for votes for women must now be carried. The issue will be decided when the voters of the state pass judgment upon the work of the constitutional convention at the polls. The issue was put up to the state voters yesterday when the constitutional convention passed, by a vote of 76 to 34, the Kilpatrick proposal.

Under the terms of the proposal separate ballots and separate ballot boxes will be used. Women will bear the brunt of the battle on either side and state organizations for and against extension of electoral duties and responsibilities to women. Organizations of women will campaign the state and flood it with literature. With men as umpires there is promised a battle royal.

If the Kilpatrick proposal, which is to be submitted separately, is ratified the constitution will read: Every citizen of the United States, of the age of 21 years, who shall have been a resident of the state one year preceding the election, and of the county, township or ward in which he or she resides such time as may be provided by law, shall have the qualifications of an elector and be entitled to vote at all elections.

If the proposal is voted down by the people the words "white male" will be left before the word citizens and no reference will be made to "she." The term "white male" is in the present constitution, but it is nullified so far as it bans negroes by the federal constitution.

Featured by final outbursts of oratorical fireworks and a reversal over night in his position by President Bigelow, who, though pledged to Hamilton county to vote against submission of the question, pleaded and voted for submission, the preliminary fight for woman suffrage ended yesterday morning.

Mr. Keller, Licking county's delegate, has been seriously sick at his home since Saturday, March 2. It is understood that had he been present he would have voted against the submission of the proposal.

WABASH LIMITED WRECKED

Five Killed and Sixty Injured Near West Lebanon, Ind.

COACHES WERE DERAILED

Two of Them Rolling Into Creek—Fires Kindled Along Snowy Banks.

Danville, Ill., March 8.—Five persons were killed and nearly three score were injured last night at Redwood bridge, two miles west of West Lebanon, Ind., by the derailment of the Continental Limited train, west-bound, on the Wabash railroad.

The dead: Mrs. U. G. Good; boarded train at Ft. Wayne, en route to St. Louis; back broken, died almost instantly. Mrs. Grant, en route from Adrian, Mich., to Kansas City. Two unidentified men. Unknown youth, about 18 years old. Seriously injured: Mrs. Paul Treese, Danville, Indiana; May Hudson, Sidney, Ill., cut and bruised; Fred Henschen, St. Louis, traveling auditor Wabash railroad, hurt about head.

All the cars left the rails and some of them turned over. A broken rail is said to have caused the accident. Two of the cars rolled partly into a creek, the derailed-taking place at the end of a bridge.

The locomotive remained upright on the rails and word was sent as soon as possible to division headquarters at Peru, Ind., and Decatur, Ill. Some delay was experienced because wires were torn down by the coaches as they rolled over.

Wrecking and relief trains rushed to the scene from east and west and began the work of rescue. The wounded were rapidly placed aboard a special train composed of two cabooses and hurried to Danville.

Several of the injured may die and it is said that others may be dead in the wreckage.

The train was going toward St. Louis and passengers were preparing to eat dinner as the train approached the Redwood bridge, near the Illinois state line. Without a jolt at first, the whole train seemed to swerve to one side, and then the coaches rolled, crushed together and piled up alongside the track. The baggage and mail cars suffered the most.

Nearly every passenger was hurt by the rolling over of the cars. Those persons in the coaches that were crushed suffered more severe injuries. Those who were not hurt soon dragged the injured from the overturned cars, who could not be extricated until wrecking derricks arrived.

Along the snowy banks of the railroad fires were kindled to keep the women and children warm while they tended the more seriously injured. Residents of West Lebanon and Redwood Crossing hurried to the wreck with hot coffee and bandages for the wounded.

Several men started repairing the telegraph line and when the relief trains arrived there was a fairly orderly scene, except for the wreckage, at which men were tagging and prying in an effort to recover any persons that might be pinned there in distress.

The train was one hour and twenty minutes late and was traveling 40 miles an hour when a rail broke, under the weight of the engine.

HURLED SELF IN FRONT OF TRAIN.

Millidgeville, Ga., March 8.—Hurled himself in front of a freight train Arthur Weisbaker, 72, a pellagra patient was instantly killed yesterday. An attendant attempted to pull Weisbaker from the track, but he held tightly to the rail until the train came along and cut off his head.

LUNCHING CROWD DISPERSED.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 8.—Quick prevailed at 3 o'clock when the last of the crowd which had gathered threatening to lynch a negro Eugene Baxter held in the county jail for murdering Henry Silverstein, was finally dismissed. No further demonstration is expected as the court has promised a speedy trial.

Pure Air in London Tubes.
The objection to underground travel in London—that the air is impure and often stifling—will soon be overcome if the plans and promises of the Central Railway company are carried out. These plans include a system of ventilation capable of pumping daily 80,000,000 cubic feet of ozonized air into the tubes and tunnels of the company. One plant is already in operation and an official of the company states that it will pump 400,000 cubic feet of pure air per hour into the station, or at the rate of 900 cubic feet per person. The air is drawn from outside through a filter screen, which removes dust and dirt and impure gases. A part of the air is then highly ozonized by being passed over highly electrified plates, the proportion of ozone in the whole being one part in 10,000,000. The air is driven by fans to the level of the bottom of the station, and two-thirds of it is distributed over the platforms by ducts, with outlets at a height of seven feet above the platform. The remainder is driven into the tunnel.

Itching, Burning Skin Sores Easily and Quickly Healed

Those who suffer from itching, burning, pimples or other skin eruptions know its misery. There is no need of suffering. You can easily get rid of it by a simple and inexpensive preparation known as the "Drop Salve." It is a carefully compounded ointment that for fifty years has proven its healing remedy for itching, burning, skin sores, wounds, burns, salt rheum, worm, piles and acne. A single application will give immediate relief. The burning, irritating inflammation quickly subsides and the sores dry and disappear.

The "Drop Salve" is now put up in 25 and 50 cent packages and sold by nearly all druggists. It is not obtainable in your locality you can order direct from Swanson B Co., 13 E. Lake Street, Chicago, Ill., and it will be sent promptly upon receipt of price. It is an excellent remedy for scrofulous affections, cracked skin and scaly humors.

Saved From Dangerous Operation—Neighbor Advised What To Do For Bladder Trouble.

I, too, wish to add my testimonial to the thousands you no doubt have, and will tell you what your great medicine did for me.

Several months ago I was taken very sick with bladder trouble, had intense pains and suffered greatly, at times I could not stand on my feet or sit in a chair and often was forced to cry out with pain.

I consulted two doctors, who gave me different kinds of medicine, which did me no good. It seemed as though the more of their medicine I took, the worse I became. The doctors seemed to be greatly puzzled over my case and after holding a consultation, I was told that I had a severe case of inflammation of the bladder and an operation was very necessary.

I was being prepared to be taken to the hospital, when a neighbor came to my house and said, "Why don't you try a bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root?" I was willing to try anything to get relief from my suffering. My wife bought a bottle of your medicine, which I began taking, and soon noticed a change for the better. I continued taking it and got better right along, my appetite returned and I was able to resume work.

I have used about fourteen bottles of Swamp-Root and know that had I not taken it I would have been operated on and perhaps never recovered. I never fail to tell my friends about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, as I know it will save many people from suffering and perhaps, as in my case, a dangerous operation. Yours gratefully,

Prisoners.
In the face of Betty's indignant protest Slosson and the man named Bunker climbed into the carriage. "Don't you be scared, ma'am," said the tavern-keeper, who smelt strongly of whisky. "I wouldn't lift my hand ag'in no good-looking female except in kindness."

"How dare you stop my carriage?" cried Betty, with a very genuine anger which for the moment dominated all her other emotions. She struggled to her feet, but Slosson put out a heavy hand and thrust her back. "There now," he urged soothingly. "Why make a fuss? We ain't going to harm you; we wouldn't for no sum of money. Drive on, Jim—drive like hell!" This last was addressed to the man who had taken George's place on the box, where, a fourth member of Slosson's band had forced the coachman down into the narrow space between the seat and dashboard, and was holding a pistol to his head while he sternly enjoined silence.

With a word to the horses Jim swung about and the carriage rolled off through the night at a breakneck pace. Betty's shaking hands drew Hannibal closer to her side as she felt the surge of her terrors rise within her. Who were these men—where could they be taking her—and for what purpose? The events of the past week linked themselves in tragic sequence in her mind. What was it she had to fear? Was it Tom for whom these men were acting? Tom who would profit greatly by her disappearance or death?

They swept past the entrance at Belle Plain, past a break in the wall of the forest where the pale light of stars showed Betty the cornfield she and Hannibal had but lately crossed, and then on into pitchy darkness again. She clung to the desperate hope that they might meet some one on the road, when she could cry out and give the alarm. She held herself in readiness for this, but there was only the steady pounding of the big wheels as Jim with voice and whip urged them forward. At last he abruptly checked them, and Bunker and Slosson sprang from their seats. "Get down, ma'am!" said the latter.

"Where are you taking me?" asked Betty, in a voice that shook in spite of her efforts to control it. "You must hurry, ma'am," urged Slosson impatiently. "I won't be until I know where you intend taking me!" said Betty. "I am to die."

Mr. Slosson laughed loudly and indulgently. "You ain't. If you don't want to walk, I'm man enough to tote you. We ain't far to go, and I've tackled jobs I'd a heap less heart for in my time," he concluded gallantly. From the opposite side of the carriage Bunker swore nervously. He desired to know if they were to stand there talking all night. "Shut your filthy mouth, Bunker, and see you keep tight hold of that young rip-staver," said Slosson. "He's a perfect eel—I've had dealings with him afore!"

"You tried to kill my Uncle Bob—at the tavern, you and Captain Murrell. I heard you, and I seen you drag him to the river!" cried Hannibal.

Slosson gave a start of astonishment at this. "Why, ain't he hateful?" he exclaimed agast. "See here, young feller, that's no kind of a way for you to talk to a man who has riz his ten children!"

Again Bunker swore, while Jim told Slosson to make haste. This popular clamor served to recall the tavern-keeper to a sense of duty.

"Ma'am, like I should tote you, or will you walk?" he inquired, and reaching out his hand took hold of Betty.

"I'll walk," said the girl quickly, shrinking from the contact. "Keep close at my heels, Bunker, you tuck along after her with the boy."

"What about this nigger?" asked the fourth man.

"Fetch him along with us," said Slosson. They turned from the road while he was speaking and entered a narrow path that led off through the woods, apparently in the direction of the river. A moment later Betty heard the carriage drive away. They went onward in silence for a little time, then Slosson spoke over his shoulder.

three husbands, and I figured we could start perfectly even." The intrinsic fairness of this start made its strong appeal. Mr. Slosson dwelt upon it with satisfaction. "She had three to her credit, I had three to mine; neither could crow none over the other."

As they stumbled forward through the thick obscurity he continued his personal revelations, the present enterprise having roused whatever there was of sentiment slumbering in his soul. At last they came out on a wide bayou; a white mist hung above it, and on the low shore leaf and branch were dripping with the night dews. Keeping close to the water's edge Slosson led the way to a point where a skiff was drawn up on the bank.

"Step in, ma'am," he said, when he had launched it.

"I will go no farther!" said Betty in desperation. She felt an overwhelming fear, the full horror of the unknown lay hold of her, and she gave a piercing cry for help. Slosson swung about on his heel and seized her. For a moment she struggled to escape, but the man's big hand pinioned her. "No more of that!" he warned, then he recovered himself and laughed. "You could yell till you was black in the face, ma'am, and there'd be no one to hear you."

"Where are you taking me?" and Betty's voice faltered between the sudden sobs that choked her.

"Just across to George Hicks's." "For what purpose?" "You'll know in plenty of time." And Slosson leered at her through the darkness.

"Hannibal is to go with me?" asked Betty tremulously.

"Sure!" agreed Slosson affably. "Your nigger, too—quite a party." Betty stepped into the skiff. She felt her hopes quicken—she was thinking of Bess; whatever the girl's mores, she had wished her to escape. She would wish it now more than ever since the very thing she had striven to prevent had happened. Slosson seated himself and took up the oars, Bunker followed with Hannibal, and they pushed off. No word was spoken until they disembarked on the opposite shore, when Slosson addressed Bunker.

"I reckon I can manage that young rip-staver, you go back after Sherrod and the nigger," he said.

He conducted his captives up the bank and they entered a clearing. Looking across this Betty saw where a cabin window framed a single square of light. They advanced toward this and presently the dark outline of the cabin itself became distinguishable. A moment later Slosson paused, a door yielded to his hand, and Betty and the boy were thrust into the room where Murrell had held his conference with Pentress and Ware. The two women were now its only occupants, and the mother, gross and shapeless, turned an expressionless face on the intruders; but the daughter shrank into the shadow, her burning glance fixed on Betty.

"Here's yo' guests, old lady!" said Mr. Slosson. Mrs. Hicks rose from the three-legged stool on which she was sitting.

"Hand me the candle, Bess," she ordered.

At one side of the room was a steep flight of stairs which gave access to the loft overhead. Mrs. Hicks, by a gesture, signified that Betty and Hannibal were to ascend these stairs; they did so and found themselves on a narrow landing inclosed by a partition of rough planks; this partition was pierced by a low door. Mrs. Hicks, who had followed close at their heels, thrust the candle to Betty.

"In yonder!" she said briefly, nodding toward the door. "Wait!" cried Betty in a whisper. "No," said the woman with an almost masculine surliness of tone. "I got nothing to say." She pushed them into the attic, and, closing the door, fastened it with a stout wooden bar.

Beyond that door, which seemed to have closed on every hope, Betty held the tallow dip aloft, and by its uncertain and flickering light surveyed her prison. The briefest glance sufficed. The room contained two shake-down beds and a stool; there was a window in the gable, but a piece of heavy plank was spiked before it.

"Miss Betty, don't you be scared," whispered Hannibal. "When the judge hears we're gone, him and Mr. Mahaffy will try to find us. They'll go right off to Belle Plain—the judge is always wanting to do that, only Mr. Mahaffy never lets him—but now he won't be able to stop him."

"Oh, Hannibal, Hannibal, what can he do there—what can any one do there?" And a dead pallor overspread the girl's face. To speak of the blind groping of her friends but served to fix the horror of their situation in her mind. "I don't know, Miss Betty, but the judge is always thinking of things to do; seems like they was mostly things no one else would ever think of."

Betty had placed the candle on the stool and seated herself on one of the beds. There was the murmur of voices in the room below; she wondered if her fate was under consideration and what that fate was to be. Hannibal, who had been examining the window, returned to her side.

"Here's Yo' Guests, Old Woman!"

"Miss Betty, if we could just get out of this loft we could steal their skiff and row down to the river; I reckon they got just the one boat; the only way they could get to us would be to swim out, and if they done that we could pound 'em over the head with the oars—the least little thing sinks you when you're in the water." But this murderous fancy of his failed to interest Betty.

Presently they heard Sherrod and Bunker come up from the shore with George. Slosson joined them and there was a brief discussion, then an interval of silence, and the sound of voices again as the three white men moved back across the field in the direction of the bayou. There succeeded a period of utter stillness, both in the cabin and in the clearing, a somber hush that plunged Betty yet deeper in despair. Wild thoughts assailed her thoughts against which she struggled with all the strength of her will.

In that hour of stress Hannibal was sustained by his faith in the judge. He saw his patron's powerful and picturesque intelligence applied to solving the mystery of their disappearance from Belle Plain; it was inconceivable that this could prove otherwise than disastrous to Mr. Slosson, and he endeavored to share the confidence he was feeling with Betty, but there was something so forced and unnatural in the girl's voice and manner when she discussed his conjectures that he quickly fell into an awed silence. At last, and it must have been some time after midnight, troubled slumbers claimed him. No moment of forgetfulness came to Betty. She was waiting for what—she did not know! The candle burnt lower and lower and finally went out and she was left in darkness, but again she was conscious of sounds from the room below. At first it was only a word or a sentence, then the guarded speech became a steady monotone that ran deep into the night. Eventually this ceased and Betty fancied she heard sobs.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Wash Your Hands Often.

The following advice contained in a tract issued by the secretary of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis is good enough to be posted in every public school, and it might well be circulated among a good many grownups who are careless in their personal habits of hygiene.

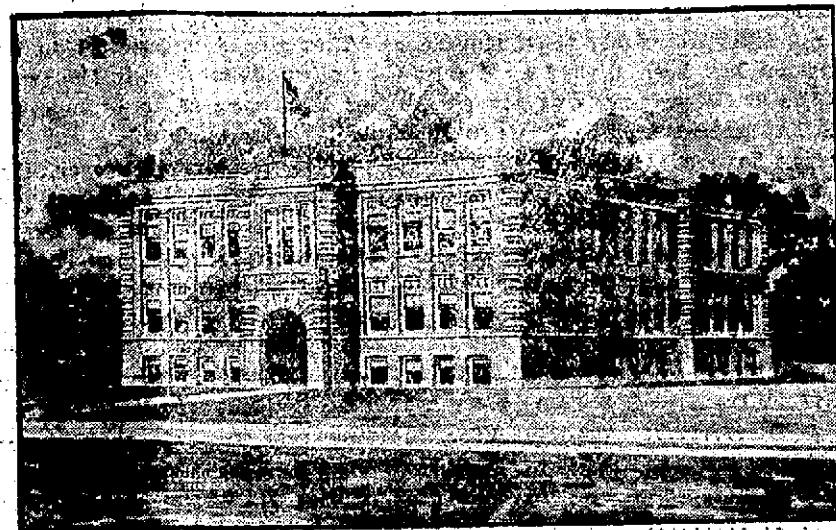

Keep your hands clean. Wash them often. The dirt that you can see on them is bad enough, but the dirt that you can't see is still worse. You might work all day in the garden with your hands covered with soil, but this would not necessarily be harmful. The carpenter, bricklayer, or plasterer dirties his hands while at work without being in any great danger.

Suppose, however, you have been in the neighborhood of sewer water or anywhere else that germs are sure to be. Your hands may not appear to be soiled, but they are dangerously dirty. Many persons continue to be carriers of typhoid long after they have recovered from the disease. Scientists say if a dozen people dip their hands into a basin of water it will, upon examination, be found to be full of colon bacilli.

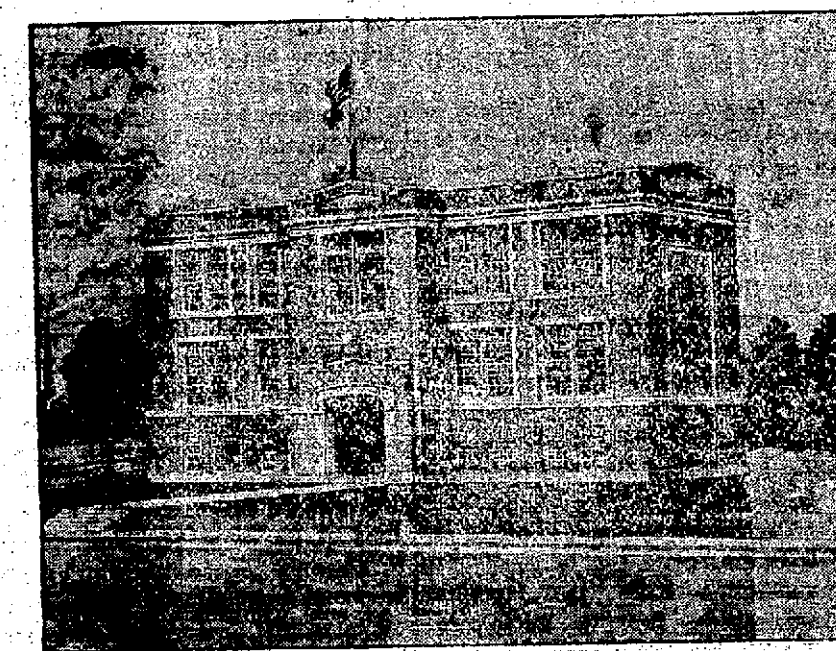

Think how many different things your hands touch in a day and how often they are lifted to your eyes, nose and mouth. Think how much of the food you eat passes through your hands. Is it not, therefore, most important that you keep them clean? Wash your hands often and especially before meals.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS TO BE ERECTED IN NEWARK IF BOND ISSUE IS SUCCESSFUL AT MONDAY'S ELECTION

PROPOSED SOUTH SIDE BUILDING
Containing 12 Rooms and Basement.

PROPOSED NORTH END BUILDING
Containing 4 Rooms and Basement.

Next Monday, March 11th, the people of Newark will vote upon a proposition to issue $98,000 in bonds for the purpose of building new school houses in North, West and South Newark. Vernon Redding, the architect, has prepared plans for the proposed school houses. All of the buildings are to be fireproof throughout, and to contain modern systems of heating and ventilation, play rooms, toilets, and all other modern conveniences. These three buildings will provide school conveniences for 1000 children now having inadequate conditions. The proposed bond issue has been unanimously endorsed by the Board of Education and by a committee of five representative men appointed by the Board of Trade.

NEWS OF VARIOUS OHIO CITIES

Zanesville: Mickey Sheen, 19, is under arrest on a charge of attempting to pass a forged check on the State Security Bank. He succeeded in an effort to get money on a worthless check on another bank. He was arrested for stealing money and clothing from a boarding house.

A WOMAN DOCTOR

Was Quick to Discover What Was Doing the Mischief.

A lady tells of a bad case of coffee poisoning (Tea is equally harmful, because it contains caffeine—the same drug found in coffee) and tells it in a way so simple and straightforward that literary skill could not improve it.

"I had neuralgic headaches for 12 years," she says, "and have suffered untold agony. When I first began to have them I weighed 140 pounds, but they brought me down to 110."

"I went to many doctors and they gave me only temporary relief. So I suffered on, till one day, a woman doctor advised me to drink Postum. She said I looked like I was coffee poisoned."

So I began to drink Postum, and gained 15 pounds in the first few weeks and am still gaining, but not so fast as at first. My headaches began to leave me after I used Postum about two weeks—long enough, I expect, to get the coffee poison out of my system.

"Now that a few months have passed since I began to use Postum, I can gladly say that I never know what a neuralgic headache is like any more, and it was nothing but Postum that relieved me."

"Before I used Postum I never went out alone; I would get bewildered and would not know which way to turn. Now I go alone and my head is as clear as a bell. My brain and nerves are stronger than they have been for years." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

DOES NOT MEAN HIGHER TAX RATE

Newark, Ohio, March 7, 1912.

Edward Kibler,
President Board of Education,
Newark, Ohio:

Dear Sir: After careful consideration of the proposed school bond issue to be voted on next Monday, I have come to the conclusion that, owing to existing conditions and recent additions to the revenues of the city, the $98,000.00 of bonds proposed to be issued for new school buildings can be paid, principal and interest, without raising the tax rate and without any increase of taxation.

The rate this year is 12 mills on the dollar, and this need not be increased in order to pay these bonds.

Yours truly,
C. L. RILEY,
County Auditor.

FOR GREATER NEWARK.

The Advocate endorses the action taken by the Board of Trade in reference to the enforcement of the laws,
the improvement of the city and the betterment of conditions in Newark.

It is gratifying to know that in this demand for right living, in this tendency to "boost," in this getting together of the men of Newark for the growth and development of the city
the same sentiment prevails among all classes. The Board of Trade is made up of men of every shade of political and religious belief, men of means and men of wages—nearly 800 in all yet is a unit in working for bigger and greater and better Newark.

The Advocate congratulates the city council, the mayor, the directors of service and safety and all other officials who are working to carry into practical effect the platform of the Board of Trade which is broad enough and big enough for all Newark.

VOTE "YES" ON THE BOND ISSUE

Next Monday the men of Newark will decide at the polls whether or not they favor the construction of three new school buildings in this city. The work carries with it an estimated expense of $98,000 and the proposition is to issue bonds for that amount.

The Newark school board is unanimous in asking the people to approve the bond issue, the Board of Trade through its committee of five high-class representative men, heartily endorses it and the South Side Improvement Association has also set its stamp of approval on the measure.

The Advocate favors this issue of bonds because it believes in the proper educational facilities for Newark boys and girls. This paper indorses
the project just as it favors the proposed Free County Library because the new school houses and the Library will make better and more useful men and women of the boys and girls who are living here or who will live here in the years to come.

A city that has high class schools
and a good public library is progressive. Good schools and a fine library go hand in hand towards better citizenship.

County Auditor Riley says that the new school houses can be built in South, West and North Newark without increasing the present 12 mill tax rate. The schools are needed, why not have them?

A tax of 10 cents on every $1,000
worth of taxable property in Licking county will not only give us a big free public Library but will put a branch library in every township or village in the county. Who can estimate in dollars the value of such an institution? Go over to the public library any day or any evening. See the boys and girls who are there. See what they are doing. Do that and you will come away a "booster" for a free county library if you are not already one.

Let's get the new school houses and then get busy and get a big county library that will help every man, woman and child in Licking county.
The cost will not hurt anybody and the good that will result will be found not only at once but in the generations to follow.

Vote "yes" next Monday on the school bond issue and talk to the County Commissioners in favor of a County Library.

The filibuster instinct is pretty strong among Americans; it did not die with the famous Walker. It manifested itself in the fast Cuban insurrection. It appeared in Nicaragua. It helped Madero, and it is to be seen in the risings against Madero. The President has sternly warned all Americans that they cannot participate in the domestic troubles of foreign countries and then appeal to their own Government for protection.

New Appraisements.

The annual report of the state tax commission for 1911, shows the valuation of public utilities was increased from $268,191,480 in 1910 to $912,862,- 833.

The commission dug up 231 public utilities during the year which had evaded taxation. Where 110 electric light companies were valued at $6,387,934, now 167 concerns are placed on the duplicate at $29,373,430; 150
natural gas companies are now taxed
at $78,486,270 as against 83 companies at $20,881,531; 86 street, suburban and interurban electric railways at $123,- 044,180, against 82 at $32,693,904, and 634 telephone companies at $61,116,- 110, against 575 at $21,654,529.

"The four last decennial appraisements of real estate were not only a useless waste of money and an annoyance to property owners, but were also a farce," says the commission. "Values in the aggregate were not matterially changed and it is doubted if the changes made resulted in a better equalization of this class of property between the counties and cities, or between the individuals."

Commend Central Board.

Superintendents of the state institutions have adopted a resolution in which they commend the central board of control system, which they declare has worked for greater efficiency in the institutions. This is one of the big reform measures Governor Harmon secured despite considerable opposition.

Questions of veracity are always as thick as flies around the third term.
The assurances that Secretaries Meyer and Stimson have given that he would not be a candidate are said confidently to have been based upon his own statements to them. Thereupon Mr.
Roosevelt declares that he never said anything of the sort to them, and for obvious reasons they decline to discuss the matter. Before we get through with this campaign Mr.
Roosevelt will stoutly deny that he ever said he would not take another term.

Jemima's great at basket ball,
which game she plays with speed and zest; she won a silver cup last fall at some big school athletic fest. It does not make her stiff or sore to trot up on the cinder track; but when she hears her heart and she nearly breaks
her heart and back. Upon the horizontal bar from rival girls she knocks
the spots; and people come from near and far to see her tie herself in knots. Such wholesome, healthful exercise will never leave her tired and weak; it gives new lustre to her eyes;
and rosy blushes on her cheek. But

People Are Benefited.

Statistics showing the amount of taxes corporations will pay in the different counties under the new tax laws Governor Harmon obtained and what they paid before are illuminating. They disclose that Governor Harmon has been a very good friend to the small property owner.

All railroads doing business in Ross county have paid their taxes without a murmur, and the figures show that these corporations stood a big raise in their properties. A comparison furnished by Auditor Alexander shows how the valuations were increased in Ross county:

State Senator James E. Boale of Hartford, Conn., has written as follows to the Harmon Headquarters in Columbus: "The enclosed clipping
from the Hartford Current, of March 2, will give you some idea of the trickery that the so-called Progressive Democratic League of Ohio is resorting to to get in touch with supporters of Governor Harmon in this city, and other places. Am pleased to say the club is a unit, for Harmon is not at all disturbed over the receipt of the documents from the league, but are strengthened by the deception resorted to to secure the names."

The clipping from the Hartford
Current, which Senator Boale enclosed with his letter reads in part:
"If the Democratic club of Hartford
does not bring suit against the Progressive Democratic League of Ohio
on the charge of getting 100 names under false pretenses, the reason will be, perhaps, the same that kept Governor Simeon E. Baldwin from suing Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, whatever that may have been."

It is then recited that letters soliciting names of 100 Harmon supporters were received in Hartford from the Ohio league. The list requested was mailed, but when the literature began to arrive, the recipients saw they had been deceived and the trick-ery, it is said, has made Governor
Harmon many new friends.

STRODE IS ACTIVE.

State Dairy and Food Commissioner Strode in a bulletin recently issued said "The attention of all buyers and sellers of milk and cream who are using the Babcock test to determine the value of butter fats of such products so bought and sold is hereby called to Section 2724 of the general
code: "Whoever, at a cheese factory, creamery, condensed milk factory, or other place where milk is tested for quality or purity manipulates, under-reads or overreads the Babcock test or any other contrivance used for determining the quality or value of milk
or cream or makes a false determination by the Babcock test or otherwise, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred."

This warning is issued in view of complaints of overreading and under-reading.

Violations of this section have been discovered and prosecutions are being entered against the offenders.
Samples of cream taken by this department from the cream before its delivery have shown too much variation in the percentage of butter fat found therein and from that allowed for the same portion in the report by the creamery.

Sampling and testing should be done only by responsible persons who are known to be not only honest but accurate at all times.

Why the Doors Closed.

In the last twelve months, two state banks in Columbus have failed; one other was absorbed by another bank,
and in Cincinnati, one state bank
failed.

This should not reflect in anyway
on other state banks in the two cities,
for they were never in better condition.

It is significant, however, that the four banks, which are not now in business, had prior to the Democratic administration, it is charged, been favored with large deposits of money from the state treasury. Prior to the old depository law, they paid no interest to the state for the money, and under the first depository law, a much lower rate was paid than is now received by State Treasurer Creamer.

While these four banks were receiving special favors from the state in the form of big deposits of money, they apparently prospered. When this favoritism ended, and they could get no better treatment from the state treasurer than other banks, the doors of the concerns closed.

The four banks referred to are:
The Capital Trust Co., organized by former State Auditor Guilbert, which was absorbed; The Union National Bank; and the Columbus Savings and Trust Company, organized by former State Treasurer Cameron; and the Cincinnati Trust Company, of which George B. Cox was the principal stockholder. The first three were Columbus institutions, and the last was situated in Cincinnati. The last three failed.

Treasurer Creamer, with the assistance of Governor Harmon, proceeded to dissolve the bank ring, by giving banks throughout the state opportunities to get deposits of state money
by competitive bidding, which was instituted, notwithstanding there was no law for it.

Persons making the investigation discovered many irregularities. One of Auditor Gilbert's duties was to collect the corporation excise tax.
Drafts and checks were deposited in The Capital Trust Co., and held there for six or eight months without interest. The amount thus on deposit would range from $1,000,000 to $1,500,- 000. George B. Cox's bank would get from $500,000 to $1,000,000 of the state money. The Union National Bank refused to permit Creamer to examine its records, and it is impossible to state what amount of money
it received. The Columbus Savings and Trust Co. carried $200,000 from December 2, 1904, until Creamer came into office, and it was never withdrawn to pay current expenses. What money was needed for this purpose was taken from the small banks.

Before the present regime of Democrats in the State House, a select ring of Republican politicians were in clover. Men in extremely moderate circumstances would go to Columbus,
serve four years in office on $6,000
yearly salaries—a considerable part of which would go for living and campaign expenses—and they would retire
from office in four years, the possessors of considerable wealth.

Many persons wondered how it was possible to save from $150,000 to $300,- 000 in four years on a salary of $6,000.
There are many who assert the state treasury investigation disclosed how it was done.

State Dairy and Food Commissioner
S. E. Strode has issued the following important notice: To manufacturers of noodles and kindred products, and wholesale and retail grocers: No coloring matter will be permitted in noodles or egg noodles, spaghetti or egg spaghetti, vermicelli or egg vermicelli, macaroni or egg macaroni, except such as may be imparted by the eggs used in the manufacture of the articles above mentioned.

Another fine tribute to Governor Harmon's sagacity as a lawyer is the fact that the Green law forbidding employers to work women more than 54 hours a week, has been upheld by the Supreme Court of Ohio. This is a step along humanitarian lines that will do much to place Ohio in the front rank of states that have adopted legislation which is intended to relieve overworked women.—Leader, Alliance.

declared there would be a new lie ev-

agers of President Taft would issue

Railway Wages And Railway Earnings

There were substantial increases in the wages of railway employees during the fiscal year 1911. Reports filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission show that the total compensation to the employees of railways
over 500 miles long was $1,005,277,- 249. The total wage cost to the railways for the year was greater by $41,868,822 than it would have been at the rates of pay in effect during 1910,
and greater by $69,297,678 than it would have been at the rates of pay in effect during 1909.

Notwithstanding an increase of 2,108
in the miles of railway operated, there were fewer employees on the payrolls
June 30, 1911, than on June 30, 1910,
by 31,037, yet the total compensation paid to employees during 1911 was greater than that paid during 1910 by $49,976,216. This is greater than the increase in the gross earnings of the railways by $22,595,121. The net revenues of the railways, which are what is left after paying operating expenses, fell off by $40,988,539 during this same period in which compensation increased nearly fifty million dollars.

These figures are summarized from Bulletin No. 28, of the Bureau of Railway Economics, which is based on official reports made by railways to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and which exhibits in detail a comparison of the aggregate compensation to different classes of employees, the number of employees of different classes, and the relation to railway traffic for the fiscal years 1909, 1910
and 1911.

The summary of revenues and expenses of the steam railways over fifty miles in length for the month of December, just issued by this Bureau,
shows that for the calendar year 1911
the total operating revenues were less than for the calendar year 1910 by $27,698,780, and the net revenues less by $22,286,784.

COURT HOUSE CLOCK LIGHTING

Since the illumination of the court house tower it has been difficult to tell the time at night, except from points close to the court house and with a view to improvement some experimenting is being done. Many believed that the circle of lights around the face of the clock made it difficult to see the hands of the clock so the lights around the west face were turned off Thursday night. The situation was not improved and the appearance of the dome was less attractive. It seems that formerly 18 candle power lamps were used behind the face of the clock whereas now 4 c. p.
lamps are burned and it seems probable that this may affect the brilliancy of the face. The candle power of the lamps behind the face may be increased or the attachment of reflectors may improve the situation. The matter is now having attention.

Home Treatment for Tuberculosis

Consumptive patients need no longer dread either the fate that formerly overtook all sufferers from lung trouble, or costly and often terribly inconvenient journeys far from home to other climates
for the cure of their fatal disease. Hundreds are now staying quietly at home
curing themselves at no expense beyond
the cost of a few bottles of medicine.
Here is one who speaks from experience:
"I was troubled with cough, which gradually became worse. I had night sweats and pains in my chest. I was losing my appetite and had become so thin and weak I could not attend to my household duties. A physician pronounced my case consumption. Not being satisfied I was examined by the physicians of the Polyclinic Hospital; they also pronounced the disease Consumption, which was proven later by an examination of sputum, as Tuberculosis. Finally I was ordered to attend to a Consumptive Hospital. My nephew would not allow me to go until I had tried Eckman's Alternative. Before I had taken the medicine three weeks
I had marked relief, night sweats ceased;
I began to eat and sleep better. I could now move about and work. My health became normal. I am in excellent health now and have been completely cured for ten years. I strongly recommend it."

SOCIETY

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Shai have returned from a trip of five weeks through the south and southwest. During their absence from Newark they visited Texas and Mexico but were forced to shorten their visit in the latter country owing to the revolutionary activities.

An announcement which will be received with interest in Newark is that of the marriage of Cleon E. Webb and Miss Mabel Warrington of Ashtabula. Mr. Webb is well known in Newark, having formerly been a favorite pitcher on the old Newark baseball team. He is at present with the Indianapolis team. His bride is a society girl of Ashtabula and the wedding was solemnized on March 6.

Mrs. Edward Nutter was hostess to the members of the Wednesday Euchre club at her home in North Street on the club day this week. The game was merrily contested till late in the afternoon when dainty refreshments were served to the members, Messrs. George Jones, J. B. Burch, Guy Hoffman, Edward Woodward, W. L. Jackson, J. A. Sharritt, Fred Myers, and N. E. Vanatta, the guests were Messdames Melvin Davis, Win Shamp, Clem Coffman, R. H. Nutter, Misses Mable Shamp, Maite Gaudingier, and Mrs. George Moore of Kansas City.

STEVENS—MARTIN.

On Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride in North Eleventh street Rev. W. D. Ward solemnized the marriage of Mr. Norval W. Stevens and Miss Jennie Martin. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present. The young people were attended by Miss Jessie Thomas and Mr. Fern M. Peal.

Mr. Stevens' home is in Bellaire, but is now an employee of the Smith Shoe company of this city. Following a short visit in Bellaire Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside in this city.

NOVEL APPLE FEAST

DELICIOUS FRUIT AS BASIS OF ENTIRE MENU.

Breakfast or Luncheon With Rosy-Cheeked Fruit in Chief Role Gives Hostess Chance to Exercise Ingenuity.

While our delicious apples still remain a delicacy in contradistinction to the household standby they form later in the season, the apple motive can be used as the basis of an entire menu with piquant success. For instance, the entertainer who loves to seek out the unusual in even her lesser affairs might arrange an apple breakfast, in which the rosy-cheeked fruit plays chief role. With a slight difference in the hour appointed, such a function becomes an apple luncheon, but there is a freshness to the former name which is attractive, and then at this time of year the cooler earlier hours are frequently chosen.

Whatever the hour decided upon, the invitations can be extremely pretty. Prepare them in this way: Have heavy linen notes sheets for them, and at the head of each sheet paint in water color a spray of leaves in Kates Greenway style, with one rosy apple pendant therefrom. Below each apple bough could be a quotation about the fruit. It adds to the effect if this quotation is written in red ink and fancy lettering is employed.

Lunch cloths with a design of apples are easily embroidered by the needleworker, or they can be obtained in the shops, and one of these, when practicable, makes such a pretty touch in the decorations.

For this centerpiece, have a charming, old-fashioned egyptian piled high with the fruit of the occasion, and some pretty foliage of the apple tree. It is effective to have apples of a different color on each tier, beginning with the tiny lady apples, alternating if these are obtainable at the time, on the top of the dish.

Have strings of red and green apples crossing each other, suspended above the table, and for place cards have rosy apples cut from art paper and colored, or apple bonbonnières filled with candies can have conventional place cards of small size tied to their stems with ribbon.

At an apple feast given about this time last year the first course was a fruit salad served in porcelain apples, the red and green of which added a very charming note to the scheme. Where these are not available, the natural fruit can be cut in half and used as cups. When the "lid" is added the effect is that of a whole fruit on the plate.

Let the principle course of the menu, which may be either chops, beefsteak or an omelet, come to the table decorated with bacon and fried apples. With any one of these French fried potatoes would be appetizing, and hot biscuit or toast with butter.

The salad might be a combination of pineapple, with grapes and bits of apple, served in apple baskets, or in green apple forms of crepe paper, over cardboard.

With this pass the coffee, cream cheese (having a few walnut meats stirred into it), and toasted crackers.

Reserved for Onions.

The vegetable board in a certain kitchen has a big round O burned on one side of it. This is the space used for slicing and dicing onions. A wooden spoon is the best spoon in the kitchen for stirring the most food in cooking, but it should never be used where there is high seasoning or onion seasoning, as the wood retains flavors. The grater used for onions should be washed in cold water. Few housekeepers realize the great absorbing qualities of cold water.

To Polish Oak Floors.

To look well a hardwood floor must be kept in good condition. Oak floors should be polished once a week. First sweep off all dust and wipe thoroughly clean with a duster. Apply a polish made of two ounces of beeswax and one ounce of hard yellow soap; add enough turpentine to cover. Allow this to stand by the side of the stove until dissolved, stirring now and again. This must be rubbed in well and the floor then polished.

The Poet's Mission.

"I can't see," the poet's wife complained, "why you don't give up writing poetry and go in for something that might be more profitable."

"My dear, you don't understand the poet's mission."

"I suppose I don't. I wish you'd tell me what it is."

"Can't you see how great a boon I am conferring upon posterity? A hundred years from now orators will be quoting my lines without mentioning me and it will be supposed that they themselves are the authors of them, just as orators of the present day embellish their speeches with quotations from poets who have long been dead, without taking the trouble to mention the fact that they were borrowing."

"But how will that help you?"

"It won't help me at all. But do you want oratory to become a lost art?"

The fellow with money to burn may live to savor the ashes.

HEART AND HOME TALKS

BY BARBARA BOYD

Parties for St. Patrick's Day

An anniversary of some sort is usually welcomed by the woman who wishes to give an entertainment, for it at once solves the decoration problem and often helps solve the question of refreshments and amusements. And so many entertain on St. Patrick's Day who are not by birth Irish.

Green, of course, is the scheme of decoration; and whether the affair be a luncheon, a dinner, or an evening gathering, very pretty table decorations can be achieved in this color. Masses of soft feathery fern, little pots of shamrock, white tulips or other white flowers with their green foliage, smilax, a white lace centerpiece over green, green candles, shades—all help make the table look lovely. Green bonbons; green icing for cakes, green ice cream will carry out the color note in the refreshments.

If a dinner or luncheon is given, green spinach or pea soup, Irish stew,—and though this sounds plebeian, it can be made to be very delicious, and can be served daintily—sucking pig, potatoes, lettuce, cucumbers, asparagus, all help carry out the thought, in the eatables, of the Emerald Isle.

To help along the entertaining, each guest may be asked, in advance preferably, so they will be prepared, to contribute some joke, anecdote, story, bit of history, or song, pertaining to Ireland.

The hostess may also ask her guests to take a trip with her through Ireland. For this purpose, she provides them with paper and pencils, and announces that the places to be visited are the answers to the following questions:

A sovereign and a city.

A sopper.

Adam's ale and a crossing.

To slay and to brave.

The capital of Ireland.

A popular girl and to be speedy.

Part of a lamp and an adjective.

To be cunning and to depart.

A winter garment.

A pathway for one of huge stature.

The answers are, Queenstown, Cork, Waterford, Kildare, Dublin, Belfast, Wicklow, Sligo, Ulster, The Giant's Causeway.

Prizes can be given if desired, a pretty picture of spring flowers, a pot of ferns, a book of Moore's poems, or a volume of G. B. Shaw's plays, anything of the kind being appropriate.

If any one can play some of the Irish jig music, and any of the party dance some of the real Irish jigs, it adds to the pleasure of the evening. Also, now that so much interest is being felt in the renaissance of Irish poetry and folk lore, if any one would tell or read some of the Irish folk-lore stories of the modern Irish writers, it would prove decidedly interesting.

Much fun is afforded, too, by pinning on the back of each guest the name of some noted Irish character, either real or fictional. Each one must try to find out who he is by the questions he asks about himself. The one who first succeeds in discovering his identity can be awarded a prize.

LEARN OF OSPREYS' HABITS

Ornithologists Gather Knowledge From Visits of Birds to Islands Near New York.

A great colony of ospreys, or fish-hawks, built their nests at one time upon the property of various owners of land on an island near New York, a circumstance that enabled ornithologists to gather some interesting data with respect to the breeding habits of this bird.

One osprey's nest was built upon a pile of old fence rails, only seven or eight feet from the ground. It had been added to annually until its bulk of sticks, sods, decayed wood, seaweed and the like amounted to something like three cordloads. Two other nests were built in cedar trees. These, too, had been occupied every year for many seasons, and had been increased by the addition of fresh material, until they filled the whole upper parts of the trees.

In the wooded parts of the island the nests were very numerous. The larger trees in the interior of the wood were all occupied, and on the edge of the wood every tree, large or small, had at least one nest, and some of them two or three. On the sandy plain beyond the woods a hundred or more nests were built on the ground, and on the north shore, where the beach was strewn with boulders, almost every one of the larger rocks had a nest on it.

When one investigator approached some of the nests, the older birds flew silently away and did not return until all was quiet. In other cases the hawks were noisy, and even showed fight, darting down at the visitor's head and striking out with their talons.

These birds, however, would return to their eggs when the caller remained quiet, though he might be only fifty feet away.

One nest was seen to contain an old broken ax, a bootjack and a straw hat. Of the variety of materials wrought into the different structures the following is a brief list: Barrel staves, barrel heads and hoops, a pile of life preservers, brooms, an old plane, a feather duster, a blacking brush, part of a hay rake, a rubber boot, several pairs of shoes, a pair of trousers, a long fishing line with hooks and sinkers wound on a board, bottles, tin cans a door mat and a rag doll.

In the interstices of many of the larger structures smaller birds had built their nests, well protected from the weather. The grackles were especially given to doing this, and were very bold in collecting fragments from the fishhawk's tables.—Harper's Weekly.

It Brightens Carpet.

A teaspoonful of spirits of turpentine added to two gallons of warm water will restore the brightness to carpets that are dulled with dust. After sweeping the carpet thoroughly, wring a cloth out of the water and wipe the surface of the carpet, first against the grain and then with it. This also prevents moths from eating away the nap of woolen carpets.

We wouldn't know some men were dead if we didn't miss their bragging.

HOW TO REMOVE A POOR COMPLEXION

(From London Fashions.) Cosmetics can never really help a poor complexion; often they are positively harmful. The sensible thing is to actually remove the thin veil of stinging, half-dead scarf skin and give the fresh, vigorous, beautiful young skin underneath a chance to show itself and to breathe.

This is best done by merely applying mercolized wax at night, like cold cream, washing it off in the morning. The wax can be obtained from any well stocked druggist. It absorbs the disgusting cuticle gradually, harmlessly, leaving a brilliant natural complexion. Of course this also takes with it all such blemishes as red blotches, moth patches, liver spots, blackheads, pimples, etc. As a freckle remover and general complexion beautifier this old-fashioned remedy is unequalled.

DIET FOR COLD WEATHER

Heavier Foods Are Taken in Winter Than Summer and in Greater Quantity.

The choice of foods in winter is of special importance.

Upon its digestion and assimilation depends the quality of blood, and a healthy body is in no possible where this vital fluid is in an anemic condition.

Heavier foods, of course, are taken in winter than in summer, and in correspondingly greater quantity.

Heat producing foods should be selected, especially where the vitality is low.

Healthy, robust people do not require as much of this heavier food, as their blood is sufficiently rich and of sturdy warmth.

While pork is not desirable as an everyday diet, a little is beneficial on account of its fat when very well cooked, and it can be digested without ill effects.

Beef is also desirable, as also are potatoes.

Beets are blood makers and a moderate amount of sweets in any form is especially desirable for the winter fare.

Cocoa and chocolate are nourishing, and better results are obtained than where tea or coffee is taken.

Warm milk may be taken at night before retiring where insomnia is present.

This is also especially good to take before starting out into the cold, as it warms and nourishes at the same time.

Fruits, fresh and stewed, the same prunes and ripe figs, should be eaten in winter.

Discovers Many Comets.

Dr. William Robert Brooks, discoverer of the Brooks comet, which has been under observation of late by astronomers, has made more discoveries in his field than any other living man. He has 25 comets to his credit, many of them having been found by means of a home-made telescope directed from his little "red house observatory" at Phelps, N. Y. Dr. Brooks asserts that the world is looking for the last time on his comet—that it will never appear again. Since 1888 he has been professor of astronomy at Hobart college, New York. He is a fellow of the Royal Astronomical society and has had many other honors bestowed on him.

SUBSCRIPTION FOR MRS. SMART

Mr. H. Houpt, the contractor, left a $5 subscription at the Advocate office Friday, suggesting that this paper receive cash subscriptions for Mrs. Smart, widow of Thomas Smart, who met a tragic death in West Newark this week.

Mr. Houpt called attention to the fact that Mr. Smart was a good citizen, a working man, honest, sober and industrious, and that a fund created by the subscriptions of citizens could be used to good advantage by Mrs. Smart.

The Advocate is pleased to make this announcement and will be glad to receive any contributions that are made and to hand the same to Mrs. Smart.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Old Red Top,
King of the Chicken Yard

Red Top Was Angry.

THE troubles of Dinah with the cross patch rooster, big Tim, was a source of unending interest to the children. Dinah claimed that Tim fought as no Christian rooster ought to fight. Tim had had a lively quarrel with one of the younger roosters that day.

"Dear, dear, is Tim quarrelling again?" said daddy in reply to Jack and Evelyn's latest bit of chicken yard gossip.

"Tim ought to look out. I have had my eye on him for some time, and if he doesn't take care his fighting career will come to a close in some Sunday's dinner."

"But let me tell you a little story."

"Once there was a beautiful big chicken yard. It was in the country, where there were all sorts of good things to eat. When he had gathered his crop, the farmer who owned it used to let the chickens run everywhere so that they could pick up bugs and worms."

"There were a great many chickens in that chicken yard, but old Red Top thought himself the best and smartest of them all. If any of the others dared to say or do anything displeasing to Red Top he was at them beak and claw. Red Top was an awful fighter. Maybe he was as bad a fighter as big Tim."

"Well, one day the farmer bought a nice new bantam rooster and put him into the yard with the other chickens."

"The minute Red Top saw that rooster he was mad—fighting mad. He said bantams always made him feel that way. With a fierce cock-a-doodle-doo he went for the newcomer."

"Well, those two roosters had a terrible fight, and at the end of it Red Top, though he bore marks of the other rooster's beak and claws, was left in the middle of the chicken yard to crow in triumph, while his beaten rival crawled away into the darkest corner he could find to look after his wounds."

"So pleased with himself was Red Top that he flew up on top of one of the fences and crowed so that every one for a mile might have heard him bragging about having whipped the new white rooster."

"A hawk did hear him—a big brown hawk that was sailing lazily across the sky. Down he dropped until he was just over Red Top's head, and then with a pounce he had the rooster."

"Red Top was never seen around the chicken yard any more, and when the little rooster came out of his hiding place there was no one to bother him. Indeed, in time he came to be the boss of that chicken yard himself; but, though the story does not say so, it is to be hoped there was another hawk in waiting for him if he ever got to be as disagreeable as old Red Top."

North Enders' Meeting.

Quarter Century Ago.

(From Advocate, Mar. 8, 1887.)
The favorite German comedian and vocalist, Pete Baker, in his well known musical comedy, "Chris and Lena," is at the Auditorium tomorrow night.

Mr. J. W. Webb was re-appointed trustee of the Children's Home by the county commissioners yesterday. Captain James H. Smith of this city was granted an increase of pension by the department at Washington yesterday.

Mr. Harry T. Franklin of the D. & O. offices, is incapacitated for work by serious illness.

Fifty Years Ago Today.

The Confederate ironclad ram Virginia (Merrimac) attacked the United States wooden warships in Hampton Roads. The Congress surrendered. The Cumberland was sunk with many of her crew. The ram lost seven killed and seventeen wounded. The Federal ships lost 261 killed or drowned and 108 wounded. The battle in Arkansas generally known as Pea Ridge ended this day with the defeat of General Van Dorn's Confederates by the Federal army under General Curtis. The losses in two days' fighting were over 1,000 killed and wounded on each side.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

The president of Nicaragua announced that the projected canal across the isthmus should be neutral.

William Jennings Bryan at First M. E. church Tuesday evening, March 12. Tickets 50c.

East Newark People.

At 7:30 this evening a meeting of East Newark people will be held in the East Newark Methodist church, in the interest of Clean-Up Day and civic improvement in general.

Teamsters' Union.

At the regular meeting of the Teamsters' Union last Wednesday, after the regular order of business had been dispensed with, President Emert was chosen as delegate to the Board of Trade. W. M. Connell was re-elected business manager.

Seven Hundred Ninety.

Clarence H. White, formerly with Fleek & Neal, now making a success of artistic photography in New York, 5 West Thirty-first street, has just sent his membership card to the Newark Board of Trade. Mr. White brings the membership up to 790.

In Police Court.

Mayor Swartz this morning fined one plain drunk in police court. Granny Elben, who has been held for investigation, was released from custody. He was held pending an investigation into the details of the burglary of Pennsylvania freight cars last month.

Suffrage Lecture Postponed.

The date has been changed for the lecture announced, which was to have been delivered by Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Warren, president of the Ohio Equal Suffrage Association. The date originally announced was next Tuesday evening. It will be delivered one week from next Tuesday evening at Taylor Hall.

From Peach Seeds.

In one of the windows of Erman's drug store, in the Arcade, may be seen some interesting work done by J. W. Baillie of West Newark. With a simple penknife and 25 peach stones, Mr. Baillie has fashioned all sorts of things—elephants, monkeys, horses, dogs, baskets, etc.—and each has been made into a watch charm.

Funeral Sunday.

Criss Bros. & Jones, the undertakers who have the body of Fred Burroughs, the soldier who dropped dead in the West End Tuesday morning, have as yet been unable to locate any of the members of his family, and in case they are not heard from, the burial will probably be made in Cedar Hill cemetery on Sunday.

Happiness is a loss-up between married man's warning and a bachelor's advice.

NOT HOPELESS.

Nothing is more to be deplored than the faithlessness of those in high places who assume that under no condition can a liar tell the truth, a gambler seek to yield to honest impulses, or a bad man desire to reconstruct his life. Recent tendencies in the United States senate would seem to ignore all presumptive evidence, to deny the conviction of an overwhelming majority of the better citizens on the assumption that a man who has accepted graft must be forever denied a hearing, his testimony always be discredited, while he of all men should know what he is speaking about, and because he is human justifies the presumption that under conditions he may speak the truth, under provocation he may serve righteousness. Anyhow, no man's depravity is so great as to vilify and destroy the conviction that there are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, corporate as well as in their individual capacity.—Jenkin Lloyd Jones.

CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills Are Violent—They Act on Bowels as Pepper Acts on Nostils.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember—Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

THE FIRST LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY IN AMERICA.

By A. W. MACY.

In 1619 Sir George Yeardley arrived in Virginia with a commission as governor of the colony. Among his instructions was one that brought great joy to the colonists. It was to the effect that a general assembly should be held yearly, composed of the governor and council, and two Burgesses from each plantation, to be elected by the people. This assembly was to have power to make laws for the colony. It assembled at Jamestown, July 30, and was the first legislative body to meet on American soil. The sessions were held in the little Episcopal church which, we are told, "the governor caused to be kept passing sweet, and trimmed up with divers flowers." There were 22 elected Burgesses, all citizens of a high type. The assembly remained in session only five days, yet in that time it enacted some excellent laws. Governor Hutchinson, the Tory historian, tells us in his book that "in 1619 a house of Burgesses broke out at Jamestown." Similar assemblies, elected by the people, have been "breaking out" in America ever since.

AMUSEMENTS
Press Agent Says:
Auditorium.
"Love Watches," Billie Burke's excellent comedy is underlined for presentation by Nancy Boyer this afternoon. This evening, Wm. J. Locke's best of all comedies, "The Morals of Marcus," by special permission of Charles Frohman.
"Those who delight in a high class comedy, with a good story and somewhat of a plot, will find in this offering a real pleasure. The play is a dramatization of the novel "The Morals of Sir Marcus Ordeyne," a book which excited more than usual interest
last year.
Nancy assumes an Anglo-Syrian, di-allect part, something entirely different from anything she has ever presented locally. In Carlotta, the Wait, she seems to have been moulded for the part, so well does it fit her particular style of work. Mr. Chatterton is seen in the title role, one of the best parts
he has in the entire repertoire. Mr.
Testa assumes one of his conventional heavies, and in this sort of role, is said to be in his best vein.
Saturday matinee by special request Miss Boyer will present again "When Knighthood Was in Flower."
"My Wife," Saturday evening, will round out the first half of Miss Boyer's two weeks engagement in Newark. Monday afternoon, the beautiful play, "Beverly of Graustark," will be presented. This production is claimed to be the greatest ever presented in Newark at popular prices.

The Orpheum.
What proved to be one of the best and most pleasing sketches ever seen in the Orpheum featured on the new bill which opened yesterday for the last three days of the week. "Patrice"
the well known actress, is presenting,
has latest success "The Lobbyist."
This is a lively comedy sketch full of sparkling wit and humor and funny situations. It is a story true to life and affords "Patrice" a chance to display her talents.
Hayman and Haden two comedy musical artists offered a very pleasing act in which they introduced several selections, both rag-time and popular,
on various instruments. Their comedy was very good and caused much hearty laughter.

Joe Daniels, comedian and mimic displayed some excellent work in his impersonations of several vaudeville artists. To see him perform one would almost imagine he was really the artists whom he so perfectly impersonates.
The Zebinos more than made good in their classy little specialty. As contortionists and equilibrists they have some excellent ideas and marvelous feats. The Orpheum has a new picture. Don't forget the two weeks of latest licensed motion pictures
Sunday for 5c.

One cup sour cream or a tablespoon
each of butter and lard, one cup sugar,
one egg, one teaspoon soda, dissolved
in a little hot water, one teaspoon baking powder, a pinch of salt and flour enough to roll out quite thin. Spread half of the dough with pitted raw prunes chopped fine and a few drops of lemon added to the prunes, or the lemon may be omitted; double over the other half of the dough, roll slightly, cut and bake in a hot oven. Any kind of jam, raisins, or any other fruit
can be used instead of prunes.

An Unusual Attractive Display of Fashion's Latest Decree in Spring Styles

Every day brings us closer to Easter, the time that really marks the opening of the Spring Season. It is really a pleasure to get away from the heavy apparel of Winter and don the new fascinating styles that are so much in evidence this Spring. Much forethought and deliberation, combined with a careful study of the correct styles, enables us to present for your inspection the largest and most complete showing of our business career. We desire to direct your special attention to our large Ready-to-Wear Department, which is a store in itself—then the Dress Goods and Silks, with the beautiful line of Trimmings next in evidence. All kinds of new Wash Goods are on every hand, with handsome Laces and Embroideries to set them off. We can't begin to tell you about all the pretty things. DON'T BE NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

New Tonic, Tona Vita, Will Positively Restore Your Old Vitality.

Nervousness, depression of spirits, lack of energy, all run down, these are the chief symptoms of nervous debility, the modern affliction caused largely by the rush, hustle and worry of modern life.

If you are a sufferer from this all-too-common complaint, and cannot go to a high-priced sanitarium to have rest and diet build you up, you should read carefully the following statement by C. N. Hunt, Esq., of 602 Sixth-st., Milwaukee, Wis., concerning the remarkable new tonic "Tona Vita" that has made such a great record during the past year. Mr. Hunt says: "For a number of years my wife has been a sufferer from a continuous run down, nervous condition and stomach trouble. I took her to a number of doctors, but none seemed to give her any relief. She grew constantly worse and her entire system became affected.

"She could hardly eat anything and would say the very thought of eating made her sick. She caught one bad cold after another and was always tired and languid. She had bad headaches and attacks of dizziness.

"I got some Tona Vita a few months ago. My wife began taking the tonic that night and we were pleasantly surprised to notice an improvement after the second day. She is now like a different woman. The nervousness and depression are all gone, and she eats and sleeps better than she has for years. It seems wonderful to note such a change in her. I believe 'Tona Vita' is worth its weight in gold."

If you are debilitated and run down, above all things try "Tona Vita." You will never regret it, as it will build you up like magic. It is the finest preparation now on the market.

R. F. Collins, 27 North Third street, has the agency for this great medicine in Newark, O. The price will be returned if it doesn't meet with your entire approval. The Approved Formula Co., Dayton, Ohio.

BROWNSVILLE.

Mrs. Susan McMaster, who received injuries from a fall a few weeks ago is still confined to her bed.

Mrs. Sarah Hirst is confined to her home with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Susan Brown is slowly recovering from a severe illness.

Some of the High School students, who have been suffering from the mumps are able to resume their duties.

Mr. Chalmers Hedman, an employee of the Ralston Car Company, of Columbus, spent a few days last week with friends here.

Rev. J.M. Wells of Mt. Vernon, was calling on friends here Tuesday.

Mr. Walter Drum who has been working at Thorntown has returned home.

Miss Mildred Hunt principal of the High School spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother in Granville.

Mr. G. G. Morehead is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Earl Norman in Jacksonville.

Rev. McCallan filled his regular appointment here last Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church.

BEGY'S MUSTARINE.

Ends Neuralgia, Earache, Toothache, Headaches and Backache Like Magic.

Begy's Mustarine—big box 25c—the old fashioned mustard—quickly improved and brought up-to-date. Just rub it on—it absorbs quickly, will not blister or soil clothing—better than any liniment or plaster.

It's such a wonderfully effective remedy that Evans Drug Store sells it on money back plan if buyer is dissatisfied.

Rub it on for sprains, lameness, rheumatism, lumbago, swollen joints, chilblains.

It quickly stops the misery of pleurisy, sore throat and croup, backache, stiff neck, coughs and croup. The agony from bunions and callouses is instantly banished. People who suffer from cold feet can change them to warm ones for Begy's Mustarine relieves the stagnation and causes the blood to circulate freely—be sure it's Begy's—it will do all we claim or money back.

New South Wales gold production for 1911 was 215,724 ounces, worth $3,750,000.

A BAD WINTER

There seems to be an unusual amount of bronchial trouble this winter and spring, but it need not cause alarm, for so many people have learned how to apply common sense methods in checking it.

Just remember this—no cold or cough can get a very firm hold on a really strong healthy person. Mrs. Mary Mathos of Atkins, S. C. says "I find Vinol can't be beat for bronchitis. After an attack of it that lasted for eight months I took Vinol and got a complete cure."

It is the combined action of the medicinal curative elements of cod's livers without the greasy oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient in curing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis at the same time building up the weakened run-down system. To escape bronchial troubles then, take Vinol and become strong. We do positively guarantee Vinol to give you perfect satisfaction. F. D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O.

MRS. LEVI P. MORTON, wife of ex-Vice President of the U. S. says: "I have found Mrs. Mason's hair treatment most beneficial. Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream is an antiseptic head wash with tonic and hair growing properties. See at F. D. Hall, druggist, Newark, Ohio, and other druggists."

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

The woman with tender skin dreads March because it is sure to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her veil, the sun and winds will surely make her freckle.

Fortunately for her peace of mind, the recent discovery of a new drug, othine—double strength, makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep the skin clear and white. No matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength othine will remove them. Get an ounce package from any first class drug store in the city of Newark and banish the freckles. Money back if it fails.

S.S.S. SKIN DISEASES CURES

The cause of all skin diseases can be traced to some humor or acid in the blood, as the circulation is free from impurities. When the blood is infected with acid or unhealthy matter it cannot perform its natural work of nourishing the skin, regulating its temperature and preserving its normal softness, pliability and healthfulness. Instead it irritates and inflames the delicate fibres and tissues around the pores and glands and produces some of the many forms of skin disease. The itching and stinging so often accompanying skin affections are produced by the deposit from the blood of the acid humors with which it is filled. Into the sensitive membrane flesh lying just beneath the outer covering, and surrounding the countless nerves, pores and glands. This explains why scratching the outer skin affords no relief from the itching and burning. S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every character by purifying the blood. It goes down into the circulation and removes the humors or acids which are causing the trouble, builds up the weak, acid blood, and permanently cures every variety of skin affection. Local applications can only soothe; they never cure because they do not reach the blood. S. S. S. goes right into the circulation, reaches the trouble and cures it by removing the cause. Special days for Young People's Societies, a Foreign Missionary Day, a Home Missionary Day, a German Day and Special State Days for the states of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio, have also been decided upon, but the arrangements have not yet been completed and the dates not yet selected. All the Saturdays beginning with March 16 will be called Children's Days, and under a special plan children of Cincinnati and vicinity, and in fact any large number of children from Sunday Schools or day Schools, accompanied by adults, will be admitted between 9 and 12 o'clock in the morning for five cents each. If notices is given several days in advance.

TO MEET REMAINS OF WM. ALLEN VEACH

Up to this time no definite arrangements have been made regarding the funeral services over the remains of the late William Allen Veach, who died in Miami, Florida, Thursday morning, Dr. W. E. Wright left for Chattanooga, Tenn., Friday morning, where he will meet his wife, who is on her way north from Miami, with the remains of her father. It is thought that if good connections are made the party will arrive in Newark Sunday morning. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

ECZEMA QUICKLY CURED WITH "ZEMO"

A TRIAL TREATMENT FOR 25c.
The makers of ZEMO—the celebrated eczema and skin cure—have placed on the market a trial treatment package consisting of a generous bottle of ZEMO, a trial cake of ZEMO SOAP and a 32 page booklet "How to Preserve the Skin." This entire package to be sold at 25c, so that everybody can test the true healing and cleansing properties of ZEMO. We have received a good supply of these trial treatment packages and urge all those troubled with Eczema, Pimples, Itching Skin, or any other skin or scalp disease, to come here and get the ZEMO trial treatment. We heartily endorse and recommend ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP to all persons suffering from any form of skin or scalp trouble. It is a clean, soothing, healing wash and a sweet antiseptic soap that does not glaze over the trouble like salves, powders and greasy lotions, but penetrates to the very root of this trouble. ZEMO stops the itching at once and opens the pores and draws out the poisonous accumulations to the surface of the skin, leaving it clean and healthy. Get a trial treatment of ZEMO today—you'll find it the best 25c investment you ever made. Evans' Drug Store.

MILADY'S TOILET TABLE By Mme. D'MILLE

The simplest aids to beauty are often most effective. I know of no truer beautifier for the complexion than a simple lotion made by dissolving an original package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel. Gently rub on the face, neck and arms, and you will be delighted with results. It will not rub off like powder, but makes the skin smooth, soft and satiny. It restores and preserves youthful loveliness of the skin.

Drying the hair makes washing the head a trying task. Dry shampooing leaves the hair clean, light, fluffy and beautifully lustrous. Put a cupful of cornmeal in a fruit jar, add the contents of a small original package of therox and shake well together. Sprinkle a little on the head and brush thoroughly. That is all there is to it, and this treatment will make the hair grow if anything will.

It is impossible for a woman to look her best when she is suffering from a cold. The best remedy for colds, catarrh, sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, pleurisy, stiff neck, croup, etc., is Mother's Salve. It is easy to use and quick to act.

Some women feel humiliated because of downy growths or wild hairs. These can be easily and almost instantly removed by the application of delatone paste. Mix enough powdered delatone with water to cover the hairy surface; apply and after two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs will be gone.

GRANVILLE MAY BUILD NEW PLANTS

Mayor Swartz Appoints Committee of Council to Inspect Foreign Light and Water Plants.

Granville, March 8.—The proposition to supply Granville with a new electric light plant and water works is meeting with favor by our citizens. At the last meeting of the Town Council this matter, which is of greatest interest to all our people, was discussed at considerable length, after which Mayor Swartz, as president of the council, appointed Messrs. F. P. Robinson and Albert Lee as a committee of two to visit a number of villages the size of Granville, having water works and electric light plants, inspect the same, and report to the council. It begins to look as though quite a number of improvements would be made in the village during the coming year, chief of which is the construction of a sewage plant. This is something that has long been needed, and it is hoped that some definite steps looking to this improvement will soon be made.

When one thinks of buckwheat cakes one also very naturally thinks of the nice, rich maple syrup that long years of delightful association has brought down with them, and it is not without a pang of regret that one learns of the prediction of sugar grove owners that there will likely be a short crop of syrup this season. They say that the inclination of Old Winter to linger in the lap of Spring means that warm weather will probably land among us all of sudden, thus spoiling conditions for successful sap gathering. It is when there comes a succession of bright sunny days, succeeded by frosty nights, that the clear sap springs upward and can be gathered from day to day over a considerable period. Continued warm weather has a serious effect on the sugary fluid.

At the last regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A., the recently elected officers were installed. Reports of the committees for the past year were given, and the president appointed the members of the new cabinet and the committees for the ensuing year as follows: President, Bess Bennett; vice president, Marjory McCutcheon; secretary, Grace Shenberg; treasurer, Jessie Laing; devotional, Helen Streator; missionary, Harriet Haggard; Bible study, Christine Hartley; social, Maude Ferguson; intercollegiate, Olga Dickerson; fall campaign, Ruth Abbott; handbook, Minnie Tight; conference, Ruth Thomas; membership, Marjory McCutcheon; finance, Jessie Laing.

At the meeting of Altamaha lodge, No. 296, Knights of Pythias, of this place, held on Wednesday night, there was a good attendance of the members and the second rank was conferred on one candidate, after which luncheon was served and a very enjoyable social time was had. At the meeting to be held on Wednesday evening of next week the first rank will be conferred on two candidates. Old Altamaha seems to be in the enjoyment of quite a boom at this time, as scarcely a meeting is held but that there is work in the ranks, and new applications for membership. The recent admirable improvements made in the K. P. hall give the members of this lodge one of the finest K. P. halls in the county.

One of the most delightful social events of the past week was that of Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. John Brooks entertained the members of the United Sewing club at her home on North street. The afternoon was spent in social entertainment, needle work and music on the piano by Miss Margaret Brooks and Miss Grace Owens. At the close of the meeting a delicious luncheon was served, after which the members of the club adjourned to meet at the home of Miss Marion Brooks on March 15. The guests of the club were Mrs. Walter Stambaugh of Akron and Mrs. Howard Butcher of Burg street.

Mr. Lewis Pine of this place has received a letter from a friend in the southern part of England, which contained a clipping from the London, England, Dispatch, giving an account of the "dog dynamite" alleged to have occurred near Newark some time ago. The writer says that the people over here must be very cruel. Mr. Pine hastened to write his friend the true facts in the case.

At the last regular meeting of the village council T. M. Kier refused to quitted visit as a member of the board of public service, and Burt Day was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Prof. C. E. Trask has been in the village this week arranging to ship his household goods to Minneapolis, Minn. The professor has been in New Orleans for some time, but recently has been in business in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barton of Findlay, who have been making an extended visit with their daughter, Mrs. Grace Underwood, at her home in Allegheny City, Pa., have been visiting friends here for several days before going to their home.

Miss Vivian Mason, a charming and accomplished young woman of Springfield, O., after a pleasant visit of several days here, left for her home Thursday.

FOR MAKING GRAHAM GEMS

Good Rule to Follow When Milkman Is Late in Making His Appearance.

Sometimes the milkman does not put in an appearance at the usual time; therefore recipes for muffins and other breakfast breads which call for water instead of milk are useful. For graham muffins that do not call for milk, have ready two cupfuls of graham flour, one cupful of wheat flour, two of warm water, a tablespoonful of butter and two of molasses, a tea spoonful of soda and two of cream of tartar. Mix together in the usual way by sifting the two kinds of flour together with the soda and the cream of tartar and then adding the butter, the water and the molasses. It is well to add a little salt. Bake in hot gem pans in a quick oven. Graham meal will not take the place of graham flour.

MRS. E. S. METZ DIED TODAY AT ADVANCED AGE

Would Have Been Ninety-Six in May. One of the Pioneer Residents of Licking County.

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Metz, widow of the late Charles C. Metz, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed Christian women of Licking county, died at her home 488 East Main street about 9 o'clock Friday morning after an illness of some time with the ailments peculiar to advanced age, being 95 years old at the time of her death. Mrs. Metz had been in the enjoyment of excellent health all her life, and it was not until a few months ago that she began to rapidly decline, and on May 16, 1911, was able to celebrate the 95th anniversary of her age, surrounded by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

MRS. ELIZABETH METZ.

The deceased was born in Germany, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. Bernhart Fisher, and came with her brother to this country in 1840, at which time a party of sixty-one persons in the little town of Horheim started for America, going to Havre by wagon, it requiring twenty days in making the trip, which was naturally tedious and fraught with many inconveniences. The younger ones were often required to walk where the roads were rough and hilly. Notwithstanding the hardships there were occasional incidents on the route that furnished their share of cheer and amusement. As the wagon train proceeded on its way to Havre, the party was generally booked to stop the night at some inn, or place calculated on beforehand, but it often happened that the place was overcrowded and the passengers were soon led to understand the motions and gesticulations of the French landlord to pass on.

In this way they were often obliged to travel until far in the night, before they could find shelter. As the weather was often quite cold, and rough, to find lodging for so many was one of the important problems of the day. On one occasion the party was assigned to a large hall, but when they arrived quite late a dancing party was occupying it, who disputed their right

Some Sink Sense

No place in the home gathers grease as quickly as the kitchen sink. Gold Dust washing powder, however, has the peculiar quality of dissolving and cutting grease and after each dishwashing, a suds is made in the dishpan with warm water and Gold Dust, and the sink thoroughly rinsed with these suds, the last particle of dirt and grease will be removed. The sink pipe will never become clogged with grease if Gold Dust and plenty of hot water are used for washing the sink morning and evening.

to it until midnight, at least. The tired travelers looked on until the hour of twelve approached, and when they found that no cessation seemed in sight, some eight or ten of the men threw them on the floor among the dancers, and in that way secured possession of the hall to which they were entitled. These were only a few of the difficulties encountered by the members of the party in making their way to America.

On April 2 the party left Havre and set sail for America. In those days each passenger was required to furnish a given amount of provisions and heads of families for each person they represented. The voyage, which was quite a stormy one, lasted four weeks. On the third of May the party landed in New York, and left almost immediately for Ohio. After a stay of two or three days in New York, the party took a steamer for Albany. From Cleveland to Newark they made the trip in a canal boat, drawn by two horses, the passengers doing their own cooking. During the whole trip only one train of cars was seen, and that in the state of New York. On May 21, 1840, the greater number of the original party arrived in Newark, where a few of the families remained, Miss Fisher and her brother being among them.

Soon after coming to Newark Miss Fisher was married to Mr. Charles C. Metz, Sr., whose death occurred in 1871, at the age of about 55 years. Since landing in Newark in 1840, Mrs. Metz has been a resident of the city ever since, and has witnessed many changes.

She is survived by five children, three sons and two daughters, viz: Charles C. and David C. of this city, John Frederick of Columbus and Anna E. and Katharine R. Metz. Besides these a large number of grandchildren and great grandchildren are left to mourn her death.

At this time it is not known when the funeral services will be held.

Although Senator Lodge reported it, he had been brought to the position where he was willing to allow the original language to stand, provided there was included in the resolution of ratification a clause interpreting the paragraph objected to by the opponents of the treaties.

By a vote of 42 to 40, however, the senate adopted the amendment striking out the clause, which is as follows:

"It is further agreed, however, that in cases in which the parties disagree as to whether or not a difference is subject to arbitration, under Article I of this treaty, that question shall be submitted to the Joint High Commission of Inquiry, and if all or all but one of the mem-

Finds Cure for Epilepsy After Years of Suffering

"My daughter was afflicted with epileptic fits for three years, the attacks coming every few weeks. We employed several doctors but they did her no good. About a year ago we heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine, and it proved a blessing to our little girl. She is now apparently cured and is enjoying the best of health. It is over a year since she has had a fit. We cannot speak too highly of Dr. Miles' Nervine."

MRS. FRANK ANDERSON, Comfrey, Minn.

Thousands of children in the United States who are suffering from attacks of epilepsy are a burden and sorrow to their parents, who would give anything to restore health to the sufferers.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

is one of the best remedies known for this affliction. It has proven beneficial in thousands of cases and those who have used it have the greatest faith in it. It is not a "cure-all," but a reliable remedy for nervous diseases. You need not hesitate to give it a trial. It is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit your money is returned.

BRYAN LECTURE TUESDAY EVENING

The subject of the lecture to be delivered by Hon. Wm. Jennings Bryan at the First M. E. Church this city, on next Tuesday evening will be either "The Prince of Peace," or his new lecture, "The Signs of the Times."

Bowels are Basis of Child Health

The careful mother, who watches closely the physical peculiarities of her children, will soon discover that the most important thing in connection with a child's constant good health is to keep the bowels regularly open. Sluggish bowels will be followed by loss of appetite, restlessness during sleep, irritability and a dozen and one similar evidences of physical disorder. At the first sign of such disorder give the child a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring and repeat the dose the following night if necessary—more than that will scarcely be needed. You will find that the child will recover its accustomed good spirits at once and will eat and sleep normally. This remedy is a vast improvement over salts, cathartics, laxative waters and similar things, which are altogether too powerful for a child. The homes of Mrs. Geo. L. Ormsby, Xenia, Ohio, and Mrs. Jas. McLain, Hammondville, Ohio, are always supplied with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and with them as with thousands of others, there is no substitute for this grand laxative. It is really more than a laxative, for it contains superior tonic properties which help to tone and strengthen the stomach and bowels so that after a brief liver and bowels so can be dispensed with and nature will do its own work. Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

SITE OFFERED TO SCHOOL BOARD FOR A PLAYGROUND

Agent of Flory Estate Offers Old "Show Grounds" on Eleventh Street for $6000.

A postponed, regular meeting of the Board of Education was held on Thursday evening with all the members, Messrs. Kibler, Boone, Conrad, Haight, Miller and Rank, responding to roll call. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and a number of bills allowed.

A communication was read from Attorney Jesse A. Flory, representing the heirs of the A. Flory estate in which he proposes to sell what is known as the "show grounds," or Y. M. C. A. grounds in Eleventh street, to the board for playgrounds. The sale price proposed is $6,000 and the tract includes about six acres.

Superintendent Hawkins reported that Miss Sarah McKittick of the new Maholm street school desired a leave of absence for the remainder of the school term owing to ill health. The leave was granted.

Miss Mackay reported to the board through Supt. Hawkins that she would be unable to return to school for the remainder of the year.

As the supply of home teachers for the higher grades has been exhausted Supt. Hawkins announced the appointment of Miss Edna Highshoe. Miss Highshoe has been teaching for a number of years in Ashtabula and her home is in Perry county. The appointment was confirmed by the board, and the salary fixed according to schedule at $580.

Miss Helen Bell, a regular teacher in the schools, having a half day session, was promoted to a regular salary of $380 per year.

Treasurer Officer Handle made his regular monthly report which was received and filed.

Dr. Rank in the matter regarding the supply of the schools with spring water reported that he had awarded the contract to the Chalkbeate company at the price of 10 cents a bottle of five gallons. A report was made that some of the schools were using more water than was necessary and were wasting it, and the matter was referred to the supply committee for investigation.

A number of applicants presented their names for the places of school enumerators and the following were elected, Miss Mary L. Miller, Miss Julia B. Smith, Mrs. Mary A. Andrews, and W. D. Gilbert. They are paid at the rate of three cents a name.

SIGN NOW READS BOOST FOR NEWARK

The big Board of Trade sign on top of the Trust Building, has now been changed to read "Boost for Newark" in accordance with the original plan. The Licking Light and Power company presented this sign to the Board of Trade, erected it and is furnishing current without expense to the organization. In order to advertise the organization during the membership campaign the sign was made to read "Newark Board of Trade." By getting two more letters the wording was changed to "Boost for Newark."

It is the largest and one of the most attractive electric signs in the city and can be seen from the B and O station as well as from trains that pass through the city.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNS TO NEXT WEEK

On Friday morning the Circuit judges concluded the submission of cases for the week and a recess was taken until Tuesday morning next, when a number of appeal cases have been assigned for trial.

The judges were engaged until late Thursday night and Friday in considering cases submitted. No decisions have yet been handed down.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR AT SMALL COST

A Simple Remedy Beautifies the Hair, Cures Dandruff, Stops Falling Hair.

What a pity it is to see so many people with thin, wispy hair, faded or streaked with gray, and realize that most of these people might have soft, glossy, abundant hair of beautiful color and lustre if they would but use the proper treatment. There is no excuse for gray hair under sixty-five years of age, and there is no excuse for anyone, young or old, having thin, straggling hair, either full of dandruff or heavy and rank smelling with excessive oil.

You can bring back the natural color of your hair in a few days and forever rid yourself of any dandruff and loose hairs, and make your hair grow strong and beautiful by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. For generations common garden Sage has been used for restoring and preserving the color of the hair; and Sulphur is recognized by scalp specialists as being excellent for the treatment of hair and scalp troubles.

If you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, or if your hair is losing its color or coming out, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and notice the improvement in the appearance of your hair after a few days' treatment. Frank D. Hall, 10 North Side Square.

FRANK GRAEF HAS APPLIED FOR PAROLE

Frank Graef, serving a sentence of 15 months in the penitentiary for complicity in the July riots of 1910, has made application for parole to the board of pardons.

The case was heard Thursday at the regular meeting of the parole board and was taken under advisement. Since arriving at the penitentiary, Graef has been working at the telephone exchange in the prison. The task is a light one and he was assigned to this duty because of his crippled condition.

His application for parole was presented to the board by his attorney, Hon. Emmett Thompkins of Columbus.

Keeping Bread Fresh.

Bread and cake may be kept fresh by soaking a medium-sized new clean sponge with cold water. Set it on a saucer or in a small bowl and place it in the bread box. When all the moisture is absorbed, wet the sponge again.

The bread stays moist and fresh for several days.

Crumbs for Frying.

Care should be taken in drying bread to be used for crumbs. Do not let it remain in the oven long enough to brown, for outlets or croquettes rolled in overbrowned crumbs will not brown when frying.

Most disgusting skin eruptions, scrofula, pimples, rashes, etc. are due to impure blood. Furdock Blood Purifiers is a cleansing blood tonic. Makes you clear-eyed, clear-brained, clear-skinned.
